Transportation Careers Fair Saturday Event at Intl. Airport, Alaska Railroad and Port of Anchorage

Anchorage, March 15, 2001 -- The 2001 Alaska Transportation Careers Fair will be held from 10AM to 3PM this Saturday March 17th at the North (International) Terminal of the Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport, the Port of Anchorage, and the Alaska Railroad depot. Over forty employers, educational institutions and employment agencies will be represented at these three locations.

At Anchorage International Airport there are hundreds of jobs available in ground handling, maintenance, customer service, retail, and catering.

An impressive lineup of trucking and maritime companies will have booths at the Port of Anchorage this year. The U.S. Merchant Marine Academy will be represented, as well as the Teamster Training Center.

The Alaska Railroad has sixty positions available for track laborers.

Last year's event attracted over a thousand job seekers to the three locations, with hundreds hired. Free parking is available at all three locations. A shuttle bus between locations is being offered at no charge.

Over ten thousand people work in the transportation industry in Anchorage.
